

Use case name: log in

Identifier: u-2

Actors: User(job seeker) , System

Precondition: user must have registered in the system database.

Triggers: click on login button

Postcondition: home page will open

Main flow:

User click on login button

System response with login page

User enter username or user id and then password

User submit details

System verify user id and password with system database

If both are current then user redirect to system

If the inputs are invalid, the system displays an error message and allows the user to re-enter their credentials.

Alternative Flow:

5_a) If the user enters an incorrect username or password:

The system displays an error message indicating invalid details.

The user is given the option to re-enter their username and password.

Use case name: register

Identifier: u-1

Actors: Job seeker , Company , System

Precondition: User must not have existing account in system

Triggers: User clicks on register button

Postcondition: User profile will be created for that user.

Main flow:

User initiate register process

System response with registration page to user with requirements like name , email , password , username ...

User enter the details

System validates all details

If all details are valid then the user profile will be created with provided information.

System sends a confirmation email to the email id that the user provides.

Users verify their accounts through email.

User notified that registration is successfully complete.

Alternative flow:

4_a) if any particular detail is wrong or invalid then system throw error for that attribute.
6_a) If account verification doesn't complete in time then the system suggests the user to request another account verification email.